

KANSAS

OFFICE OF THE SECURITIES COMMISSIONER

MARK PARKINSON, GOVERNOR
CHRIS BIGGS, COMMISSIONER

For Immediate Release

October 20, 2009

Overland Park Insurance Agent Found Guilty of Securities Fraud

OLATHE, KANSAS – Kansas Securities Commissioner Chris Biggs announced today that Overland Park insurance agent Danny M. Moore was found guilty of one count of securities fraud by the Hon. Stephen R. Tatum, in Johnson County, Kansas, District Court. Sentencing is scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on December 21, 2009.

According to Biggs, Moore solicited a Johnson County, Kansas, resident in May 2006 for two investments offering a six percent return. The investor was told the money would be used to purchase two school bonds. One of the bonds being offered was from a school district which had not issued bonds. Instead, Moore used the $20,000 from the investor for his own personal expenses.

The successful investigation and prosecution was done with the assistance and cooperation of Stephen M. Howe and the Johnson County District Attorney's Office.

###

The Office of the Securities Commissioner is charged with administration and enforcement of the Kansas Uniform Securities Act. The Office investigates and prosecutes securities fraud, the offer or sale of unregistered securities, and the offer or sale of securities by unlicensed stockbrokers or investment advisers. For more information and investor education resources, visit www.ksc.ks.gov.

Contact: Gail E. Bright, Associate General Counsel
Phone: (785) 296-5215
Fax: (785) 296-5482
Web: www.ksc.ks.gov